Thy Kingdom Come is a global prayer movement, which invites Christians around the world to pray between Ascension and Pentecost for more people to come to know Jesus Christ. What started out as an invitation from the Archbishops' of Canterbury and York in 2016 to the Church of England has grown into an international and ecumenical call to prayer.

Thank you for committing to pray for the work of the gospel in Moreton during Thy Kingdom Come 2018.

Below are suggested readings for each of the eleven days, intended to help lead you into prayer. We can be praying for friends and neighbours, and for opportunities to share the good news with them. Praying for our local schools, and for the community projects we are involved in as a Church. We also want to be continuing to pray for the five areas of mission that we brought before the Lord during our Week of Prayer; finance, leadership, Children and Families' work, evangelism and worship.

Below are some suggested readings for each day to guide your prayers as you lift Moreton and our community before the Lord.

Almighty God,
your ascended Son has sent us into the world
to preach the good news of your kingdom:
inspire us with your Spirit and fill our hearts with the fire of your love, that all who hear your Word
may be drawn to you,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
