SPREAD THE WORD

John Wesley once said reading Christians are growing Christians. Lent is a great opportunity to make time to read - maybe by giving up something else you normally do. If you'd like some ideas of a book to read why not dip into 'Spread the Word'. This contains samples from 28 different Christian books so that you can get an idea of what might appeal to you. There is a copy in the tea bar - please take a look

LENT 2008

As usual we will be meeting with Christians from the other churches in Moreton for Lent lunches each Wednesday in Lent. These will be at Sacred Heart Social Club, starting at 12 noon with a brief service, followed by a light lunch. This year the services will be based around some of Jesus' parables.

This is a great opportunity to meet together as churches in Moreton - do please come along if you can.

We will also be having a brief communion service in church every Wednesday morning during Lent at 9.15 am. It would be lovely to see you there.

News from Christ Church School

We announced last week that Anne Vickers will be leaving Christ Church School at the end of this term to take up a new headship after Easter. Anne has been a great servant to the school, and has worked to build the good relationship that exists between the school and the church. She is going to be a hard act to follow!

Please pray for Graham as Chair of Governors, and for the rest of the Governors, as they begin the process of appointing a new head for the school. Pray that the Lord will bring someone to the school who will continue its strong Christian ethos.

Thank you

Ruth Jones wishes to express a deeply appreciative thank you for all your prayers, get well wishes and cards, also visits, since her recent operation. She says "I am now progressing well with the Lord's help. God bless you all".

February 2008 at Christ Church

Dear friends at Christchurch

This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday – the start of Lent. In our society today, Lent means little more than giving up something for the 40 days running up to Easter – usually some little luxury. But through the history of the church, the important thing in Lent hasn't been giving up something just for its own sake, as if God will somehow be pleased with me if I manage without chocolate for 40 days! For many centuries Christians have used this period leading up to Easter as a time to look at their lives and their walk with the Lord, and to try to get rid of those things which hinder that living relationship that God invites us to through the Lord Jesus.

So – far more than being about giving something up, Lent is about growing in our knowledge and love of the Lord Jesus – which I think is a whole lot more exciting!

But if we do want to grow in that wonderful relationship, we do need to take time to look at our own priorities. No matter whether you have been a Christian for a few months, or for many years, the world we live in does tend to squeeze us into its own mould. So why not make this Lent a time for getting back to basics, and making sure that we really have put Jesus first in our lives. Make time to pray, make time for the Bible, make time for worship. Those are the things which all too easily get squeezed out, but without which we will be spiritually impoverished.

And make time for church. Starting next Sunday, our services through Lent will be focussing on Mark's gospel. This will be a chance to be reminded of what the Good News of Jesus really is – so that we can know it for ourselves, and also be more equipped to share it with others.

Yours in Christ
