Following the tea we will move into church for a farewell service for Sam & Steve, Becci & Josh. Do please join us—we want this to be a very special occasion.

Prayer Diary

It's been a while since we revised our prayer diary, so inserted in this weeks' newsletter are some prayer diary cards. If you would like to be prayed for on a regular basis, do fill in one of the cards and pop it into the box on the welcome desk at the back of the church. Thank you.

Commend or Complain

A couple of weeks ago we were thinking about the importance of living as children of light. But of course, one of the things that makes that difficult is living in a fallen world, where we are constantly exposed to the darkness. One of the areas where we, and others, are so much influenced is through the media.

I guess that all of us at times have seen programmes on TV which we have found offensive in some way, but haven't known what to do about it. To help us make our views known to TV Companies 'CARE' have produced a leaflet called 'Commend or Complain', with details of who to contact in the major TV stations. There are copies of this on the Welcome desk, please do take one, and keep it somewhere near your telly!
