Project Odessa

Following the visit of Paul Thorpe in Jan (Pastor of Gwersyll-Church near Wrexham) to Odessa , Ukraine., we are hoping to join a group of men in visiting Odessa on Saturday 25th September—Sunday 3rd October . Over the past couple of years Paul has made several trips taking men to work on the renovation of a transition house for young people leaving the orphanage. It was great to hear how God has been at work blessing this project amongst the most vulnerable. If you are interested in joining the trip please speak to Graham Denning for more details (who went last year) or, to Peter Bouke ASAP so that flights can be bought at the lowest prices.

Westminster 2010

DECLARATION OF CHRISTIAN CONSCIENCE

Westminster 2010 is a rallying call to UK Christian voters and urges Christians of all denominations to vote with their conscience, guided by their faith.

The document sets out a broad range of policies that unite churches in the UK, including support for marriage, freedom for those of faith to live their lives according to their beliefs and opposition to assisted suicide and euthanasia.

The timing of the launch of Westminster 2010 ahead of the call of the General Election is designed to send a clear message to all parliamentary candidates that Christians will be supporting those who will both promote policies that protect vulnerable people and also respect the right of Christians to hold, express and live according to Christian beliefs.

The Christian leaders plan to target Members of Parliament and candidates who are seeking election to pledge that they will 'respect, uphold and protect the right of Christians to hold and express Christian beliefs and act according to Christian conscience'.

Make your voice heard by reading and signing the Declaration:
