

Collect for the day. O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; increase and multiply upon us your mercy: that with you as our ruler and guide we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; grant this, heavenly Father, for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

This week 20 of our E100 Bible Reading Challenge. Over the last six months we've seen that God created the world, but that the people he made rebelled against him, with disastrous consequences. We've seen that time and again God rescued his people, but time and again they fell away again. We've seen that finally he sent his Son to rescue people from the penalty of their sin. And we've been reminded how we should live as those who have experienced that great salvation. And this week we have a glimpse at the future, when Jesus will return, and God will restore his creation. What a glorious hope we have! If you haven't done so, please fill in an E100 response form – there are spare forms on the table at the back of church.

SUMMER IS COMING

Along with it a well deserved break for our Sunday Club leaders. Next Sunday will be the last Sunday Club until September; starting on 24th July our 10.45 service will begin a series of Family Services based on the book of Daniel. We'll aim to make the services suitable for children as well as adults – but we know that it is tough for parents with little children. So we'd like to run a crèche for pre-school children each Sunday. Would you be willing to help? If several people were willing, it would only mean one or two Sundays each. If you can help, please sign up on the form at the back of church. Thank you.

SUMMER READING
The monthly INSPIRE magazine is now available from the back of the church. Please feel free to take one or two and pass them on. Today is the last chance to buy from the BOOK STALL for your summer holiday reading.

TEA BAR

Please note the Tea Bar will be closed after Thursday 21st July and will reopen on Monday 5th September. Thank you to everyone who has helped, enjoy a well deserved rest.

FAIR TRADE

Due to less people using the Fair Trade Stall we have decided not to have this available each month. Fair Trade goods can be bought from local Supermarkets.
