SUMMER NEWSLETTER NOW AVAILABLE

SUMMER READING

The summer holidays are almost here; in a few weeks, many of our regular church activities will take a break, which makes summer a great time to dip into a good book.

So – whether you are looking for something to read on the beach, or while you are at home, why not visit our bookstall, which is at the back of church for the last time today.

LADIES LUNCH

Saturday 21st July

12.00 pm

Speaker is Anne McCabe from 'Pathways Support'.

HOME INSURANCE

We have been advised that one church member has renewed their home insurance with Ecclesiastical. Please ask for a quote from them when your renewal comes in. If you then accept the quote the church will get £130. Apparently, the quote was comparable with the renewal amount of their current insurer.

BAPTISMS

It's lovely to celebrate with Rey and his family today as they bring him for baptism. As we pray for them today please be praying too for the family of Travis Barrett who was baptised earlier this year.
